DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 17-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 17, next to last line, the term "i.e." is vague and indefinite and is required to be redefined in a proper format.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 17-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over UK (1,564,077) in view of Baranovski et al (6,245,390).

UK teaches a contact tube for welding wire, 2, protective cap 4 of refractory material, as claimed, but does not teach multiple; contact tubes and welding wires as set forth in the instant claims. The patent to Baranovski et al teach multiple wires and tubes 2 which are inserted in bores in a protective cap 11, with the same coated with a non-sticking material 13, for protective measures of the cap. In view of this teaching it would have been obvious to modify the UK system to include multiple welding tubes and their protection thereof, as set forth in Baranovski et al. to enable more material transfer with the multiple wires and more protection for the contact tubes. As per claim 18 the protective cap in UK is formed from refractory material. As per claim 19 coating 13 in Baranovski et al provides low adherence for spatter. Note screw thread's 6 in UK, used for connection of parts set forth in claim 21. As per claims 25 and 26 the contact tubes in UK as modified are both embedded and sandwiched, barring further disclosure of the same. Claim 27 defines copper contact tubes and UK teaches metal contact tubes. Use of copper is considered an obvious choice for the artisan, dependent on other undisclosed torch parameters such as power levels and temperature levels used in the torch use environment.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Prunier and Pike are cited for disclosing welding wire guides of interest to the disclosed invention.
